A firm grounding in the language of fiqh. Taught entirely in Arabic.
LSE / Every Sun / 9am - 1pm
Sun 5 Nov 2006 – Sun 11 March 2007

Alhamdulillah the Ibn Jabal course was the best Arabic course I've been to. The reasons for this were: high level of student-teacher interaction; structured course based on textbook; strong emphasis on grammar with regular drilling; regular tests; regular homework; many references to Qur'an / Islam . . . your actual method of teaching the grammar was v good - drills, anecdotes, examples, it really sunk in. Well that's all I can think of right now!! pls keep us all in your duas.

Dr. Umbreen Hussain

This course was the best language course I have undertaken, although it is definitely not for the faint-hearted! I think this is the most intensive work I have ever done. The course gives you enough background and a 'big picture' of Arabic grammar. I can now understand much more of the Qur'an than I could previously and even get the gist of many conversations.
